Dr. Shakeer Abdullah earned his undergraduate degree from Wittenberg University, his M.A. in Higher Education and Student Affairs from the Ohio State University, and his Ph.D. in the Administration of Higher Education from Auburn University. His education includes extensive international study including travel to Lumbadzi, Malawi and participation in programs at the University of Cairo (Cairo, Egypt) and Lancaster University (Lancaster, England).

His work includes a 2011 chapter on The implications of Muslim beliefs, practices, and traditions on university teaching and learning in Grocca, Alsudairi , and Buskist’s (Eds.) Handbook of College and University Teaching: A Global Perspective (Sage Publications). Dr. Abdullah’s writing includes the 2012 chapter entitled Memoirs of a Mighty Mite Muslim in Ali and Suratwala’s (Eds.) All-American: 45 American Men on Being Muslim (White Cloud Press).