

TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY

Office of the President

April 21, 2017

Dear Faculty, Staff and Students,

It is my pleasure to announce the appointment of Dr. Elizabeth Sharp as the Interim Vice President for Diversity, Equity & Community Engagement, effective May 1.

Dr. Sharp is an Associate Chair and Associate Professor of Human Development and Family Studies within the College of Human Sciences and an affiliate faculty member of the Women's Studies program. In 2011, she began a two-year service as chair of the Feminism and Family Studies section of the National Council on Family Relations and previously was a visiting scholar in the School of Applied Social Sciences at Durham University in England. Dr. Sharp is a well-published researcher and her work has been cited by media worldwide.

I am confident that Dr. Sharp will maintain the momentum and excellence of our programs in the Division of Institutional Diversity, Equity & Community Engagement and be a welcome representative for our faculty, staff and students. I appreciate her willingness in accepting this role and look forward to working with her. Please join me in welcoming Dr. Sharp as Interim Vice President.

Sincerely,
