RE: UPDATE: Office Hours With The President Schedule Change

Last week I shared an invitation titled, Office Hours With The President, with the campus community. The first of four events is scheduled for Friday, March 23; however, I will be in Boston this weekend with the Red Raiders as they prepare to play in the Sweet 16. Friday's gathering has been rescheduled to Thursday, March 29, 10:30-11:30 a.m. The remainder of the schedule has not changed.

I look forward to visiting with and hearing from our students at these events. I am interested in your thoughts and am ready to answer your questions on topics I can address that are important to you. I ask our faculty and staff to encourage students to attend any of the four opportunities.

An adjusted invitation has been attached for your convenience.
