

—❧ Class of 2021-2022 ❧—

MODULE 1

October 5, 2021
8:00am – 4:30pm
Location: Texas Tech Club

Agenda Overview

Transitioning from Faculty to Administrator, back to Faculty, and then back to Administrator. The Opportunities, Challenges Along the Way, and Lessons Learned (Dr. Claudia Coglisser, Rawls College of Business)

Leading by Influence (Eric Bentley, Vice Chancellor and General Counsel)

Part of my team is working remotely, now what? Building high-performing virtual teams and best practices for leadership when part of your team is remote. (Stephanie West, Human Resources)

MODULE 2

November 18, 2021
8:00am – 4:30pm
Location: Doak Conference Ctr.

Agenda Overview

Giving and Receiving Feedback (Human Resources)

Most employees feel they do not receive the proper feedback to grow, develop, or gain skills. Leaders want their teams to grow, but cannot find the words. An ineffective team member lingers too long. Sound familiar? Leadership 2.0 focuses on receiving and giving feedback with a new experiential learning process to practice these skills and receive individualized coaching from Human Resources professionals in the process.

Coaching and Corrective Action (Human Resources)

Learn techniques to foster effective communication and coaching skills. The course includes examples of how to address common situations which our leaders encounter on a routine basis.
